Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon

First Baptist Church Hilton Head Island could not fulfill its mission without the time, efforts, and prayers from our volunteers.

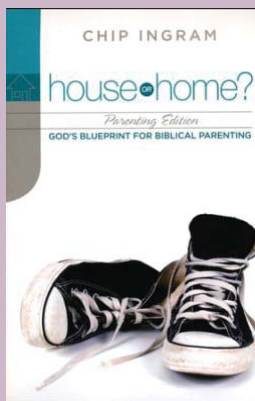

We would like to thank all those who volunteer, who have volunteered, and who will be volunteering as we celebrate on this day together. This includes all ministries and volunteers who spend their time giving so much to our church and church families, in many different areas of the work of our church. We look forward to sharing lunch, fellowship, and information with you!

Lunch will begin at 11:45 AM, on April 30, in our Family Life Center.

Reservations are necessary by calling Paulette at 843-785-4478, or filling out the form you will soon find in the Sunday bulletin.

CORE continues to meet on Wednesday nights at 6:15 PM, in the Family and Student Building, studying Chip Ingram's "House or Home? - God's Blueprint for Biblical Parenting", Parenting Edition. This study is for parents and grandparents of children and students. Please come share your time, wisdom, and talents with us!

Pastor Search Committee Continues Their Work

Our Pastor Search Committee, co-chaired by John Richardson and Mary Smith, meets every other week, continuing the process of looking for our new pastor. Since it has been only a short time into this process, there is no specific news to report. It is important that we continually pray for this committee and for the shepherd that God has already selected to lead this flock in the future. Committee members are: Paula Duncan, Tim Fick, Richard Lewis, John Richardson, Mary Smith with Phil Deagan and Samantha Neville (Secretary) as alternates.

Men's Prayer Breakfast Sunday, April 30 8:00 AM

From the Minister of Music...

During the many years that I have had the privilege of serving in the music ministry of the local church, I have been exposed to a plethora of composers and arrangers of music through the songs that come my way. One of the arrangers whose music has impacted my ministry is a man by the name of Dave Williamson. I have taught my choirs and ensembles the music of this man for at least 20 years and have appreciated and enjoyed his encouragements to music ministers around the country to build what he called “worship-leading choirs.” Though I never had the privilege of meeting Dave in person, I did have occasion to speak with him by phone and through e-mail conversations in the past. I have always appreciated his encouraging words, his humor, and the freshness and energy he brought to the music he arranged. A few weeks ago, I was stunned and saddened to hear that Dave Williamson had passed away. The Christian music community has lost a great man, who was as humble as he was talented – arranging music for choirs and ensembles for over 40 years. As a tribute to the life and ministry of Dave Williamson, I would like to share the following short article that he wrote back in 2001, which is so appropriate during this blessed Easter season.

Amazing Grace

It was born to us from the moment He thought of bringing us into existence. The mere fact that He knew what we would become, how we would respond to Him, and yet He still created us anyway, that was the beginning of it. It came as proof that He is who He said He is – loving, merciful, patient, protecting, guiding, saving, - worthy. Grace. That wondrous, unfathomable meritless favor that is amazing.

It is a God-feature that almost defies description. Grace is more than favor. It is a gift. It is forgiving mercy. It is the Gospel. It is eternal life. Grace is all surrounding, all penetrating. We are under it. We can receive it. We stand in it. We abound in it. Our strength is found in it and without it we are unable to grow. It is a possession given by God to His own for stewardship, that is at once present and yet also an inheritance to come. It is amazing.

Only Grace would be willing to lead us out of the wilderness experiences of our own making despite our rebellion. Only Grace would actively seek us out when we wandered lost. It is Grace that stands immediately available to calm our fears even as it teaches us the awesomeness of righteous-clothed love. And only Grace would be willing to trade the throne of honor and might for a garment of flesh, willing to trade the ability to alter the Universe for the ability to alter the history of an individual life. Amazing. Grace.

This Easter as the reality of the resurrection rings throughout our churches, as the cries of “Christ is risen” echo within our communities, may His resurrection truly come alive in our hearts. May we find new freedom, life....and grace, in that one bold and resounding proclamation: “He is risen indeed!!”

Happy Easter!

Richard

Spring Arbor student-athletes make a lasting difference over spring break

Michigan's Spring Arbor University spring sport student-athletes had the opportunity to compete each day in the warm sunshine, while finding outlets to give back to the communities they visited. For most college students, spring break means time spent away from the snow, relaxing with family and friends. However, for the men's and women's tennis teams and the softball team, spring break meant much more.

The tennis teams traveled to Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, and volunteered their time at the First Baptist Church in Hilton Head on Tuesday, March 14, to help with a few painting projects in the children's ministry building. Head coach Bobby Pratt said this about the culture of his team: "It is very important that no matter where we go as a team that we represent Christ. He modeled for us that we should serve others rather than be served."

Monika Wynne, a junior on the team, had this to say about her experience: "Helping out at the First Baptist Church was one of my highlights during Spring Break, since we were able to serve without limits, and have a blast while doing it."

Thank You

Dear church family,

I want to thank you all for the get well cards, prayers and encouragement, the food and equipment I recieved after my recent surgery. It brought a smile and I felt much love. I saw the love of Jesus from all of you, and I can't thank you enough!

"When you draw close to God...with your faith, with your prayers; with your heart, God will draw close to you,...with His protection, with His guidance; with His love." James 4:8

Love sincerely,
Kathy Shigo
